National Women Teachers day 03-01-2024

Every year January 3rd is observed National Women Teachers day to Commemorate the Birth Anniversary of the *Mother of Indian feminism & First Lady teacher in India*, Savitribai Phule Savitribai was Born in Naigaon in Maharashtra on January 3, 1831, Phule is widely regarded as one of India's first generation modern feminists for her significant contributions in ensuring equal education opportunities under the British raj.

She became the first female teacher in India in 1848 and opened a school for girls along with her husband, social reformer Jyotirao Phule.

The two also worked against discrimination based on caste-based identity, something vehemently opposed by the orthodox sections of society in Pune. She went on to establish a shelter for widows in 1854 which she further built on in 1864 to also accommodate destitute women and child brides cast aside by their families.

24.01.2024 Awareness of Protect Girl Child (NGCD)

To create awareness the students about National Girl Child Day (NGCD) is observed annually across India on January 24 to highlight the importance of empowering girls and addressing the challenges they face in Indian society. The day was initiated in 2008 by the Ministry of Women and Child Development (MWCD) as part of the *Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao (Save the Girl Child, Educate the Girl Child)* campaign, which aims to promote gender equality and eliminate gender-based discrimination.

- *Objectives of National Girl Child Day*
- *Promoting Gender Equality*: National Girl Child Day aims to promote gender equality and challenge gender stereotypes that discriminate against girls.
- *Empowering Girls:* The day emphasizes empowering girls with education, skills, and opportunities to reach their full potential.
- *Protecting Girls' Rights:* By raising awareness about girls' rights, National Girl Child Day aims to protect them from gender-based violence, child marriage, and other harmful practices.

25-01-2024 Rally on the eve of National Voters day

We Conduct Rally Programme on the eve of National Voters Day. To create awareness about the encourage more young voters to take part in the political process, Government of India has decided to celebrate January 25 every year as "National Voters' Day". It has been started from 25 January 2011 to mark the foundation day of Election Commission of India. Students rally on National Voters' Day. Conducted by department of Political Science.

25-01-2024 National Voters day

To create awareness the students about National Voters' Day is celebrated on 25 January to mark the foundation day of the Election Commission of India.

25th January is the foundation day of the Election Commission of India (ECI) which came into existence in 1950. This day was first celebrated in 2011 to encourage young voters to take part in the electoral process. No doubt it is the day to celebrate the right to vote and also the democracy of India. Election Commission's main objective is to increase the enrolment of voters, especially the eligible ones.

Earlier the eligibility age of the voter was 21 years but in 1988 it was lowered to 18 years. The Sixty-First Amendment Bill of 1998 lowered the voter's eligibility age in India. The theme for 2024 is *"Nothing like Voting, I Vote for Sure"* conducted by Department of Political Science.
